ALANTA ROSE

1998 Bayliner Ciera 2855

Spacious Family Cruiser with Exceptional Accommodation

Designed for Family Adventures

The Alanta Rose is a beautifully presented 1995 Bayliner Ciera 2855, offering an outstanding combination of generous accommodation, practical cruising performance, and excellent value. Having been enjoyed by her current owner for the past eight years, she has proven herself to be a comfortable, reliable family cruiser capable of everything from leisurely harbour cruises to memorable weekends exploring New Zealand's coastline.

Bayliner earned an enviable reputation for making every centimetre count, and nowhere is that more evident than aboard the Ciera 2855. Her remarkably spacious interior, impressive headroom, and versatile accommodation make her feel considerably larger than her overall length would suggest.

Whether you're introducing the family to boating, entertaining friends, enjoying overnight fishing trips, or escaping for extended weekends away, Alanta Rose offers comfort, practicality, and effortless enjoyment.

Comfortable Accommodation for Six

Step below and you'll discover one of the largest interiors available in this class.

Sleeping accommodation includes:

- Large forward double V-berth
- Spacious mid-cabin double beneath the cockpit
- Convertible dinette creating a third double berth

With over 6 feet of headroom throughout much of the cabin, the living space feels bright, open, and welcoming.

Opposite the galley, the dinette comfortably seats four for meals, cards, or relaxing indoors, before quickly converting into additional sleeping accommodation when required.

Well-Appointed Galley

The galley has everything needed for enjoyable weekends aboard, including:

- Electric cooktop
- Microwave oven
- Fridge/freezer
- Pressurised fresh water
- Ample storage cupboards

Preparing meals onboard is easy, making extended cruising comfortable and convenient.

Protected Cockpit & Easy Entertaining

One of Alanta Rose's greatest strengths is her spacious enclosed cockpit.

Recently reupholstered seating creates an inviting entertaining space, while the cockpit clears can be rolled up during fine weather or fully enclosed for protection when conditions change.

Features include:

- Comfortable helm position
- Excellent visibility
- Large social seating area
- Starboard transom access door
- Full-width boarding platform
- Hot and cold cockpit shower

Whether swimming, fishing or simply relaxing at anchor, the cockpit has been designed with family enjoyment in mind.

Confident Performance

Power comes from the dependable:

MerCruiser MCM 7.4-litre V8 (330hp)

driving through a Bravo III stern leg fitted with counter-rotating dual propellers.

This proven combination delivers:

- Comfortable cruising around 19 knots
- Maximum speed approximately 25 knots
- Smooth acceleration
- Excellent low-speed handling
- Easy manoeuvring around marinas
