Set Sail in Style & Comfort — The Ultimate Bluewater Catamaran

Presenting a rare opportunity to own a true gem of the seas — this 2012 Dean 441 Catamaran is Hull #64, marking the final chapter in the distinguished Dean Catamarans legacy. Crafted in South Africa, the Dean 441 is renowned for its robust construction, exceptional sailing performance, and spacious liveaboard comfort.

Currently berthed on a private pier in the scenic Whitianga Waterways, New Zealand, this vessel offers the perfect launchpad for your next adventure.

Key Features:

4-Cabin Layout

Designed for families or cruising with guests, she boasts a spacious 4-cabin, 4-head configuration. Each cabin includes generous storage, queen-sized berths, and ensuite heads, making extended passages or liveaboard life comfortable and private for all aboard.

Performance & Safety

The Dean 441 is famed for its bluewater capabilities—a well-balanced catamaran with solid construction, efficient hull design, and an excellent bridge deck clearance for smoother passages. She performs superbly under sail yet remains easy to manage for a couple or small crew.

Saloon & Galley

The bright, open-plan saloon offers panoramic views, with a comfortable seating area, ample dining space, and a fully equipped galley featuring top-quality appliances, plenty of storage, and ample counter space—perfect for preparing meals at sea or dockside.

Cockpit & Deck Space

Her generous cockpit is ideal for entertaining, with plenty of seating and easy access to the helm, making it perfect for socializing or enjoying sundowners after a day of sailing. Wide side decks, high lifelines, and solid handholds ensure safety while underway.

Navigation & Systems

Equipped with reliable navigation electronics, robust sailing hardware, and efficient systems, she's ready for long-distance cruising or coastal exploration.

Why This Dean 441 Stands Out:

- Hull #64 — The Very Last Dean 441 Ever Built!
