

1983 9m Irwin Haag - SeaHarvester

Price: $35,000

JAY VEE comes off the drawing board of renowned Naval Architect, Irwin Haag. A prolific designer with a reputation for quality steel workboats. Jay Vee is no exception and was built in 1983 by Hank Oosterbrook, whose work was always considered the very best when it came to building steel vessels. Jay Vee is powered by a very economical 90hp Fordson Diesel engine, and she cruises all day long at 7 knots, using around 5ltrs/hour and with 700ltrs of diesel in her tanks her range would be approximately 980 NM. She has berths for 4 people and comfortable interior.
